FALL 2022 EXHIBITION SCHEDULE

Through October 29, 2022

Connecting the Drops: The Power of Water

Seven contemporary artists present painting, drawing, sculpture, beadwork, video and a computer game focused on environmental justice and the vital importance of water.

November 10, 2022 - February 23, 2023

Revisiting 5+1

Featuring paintings and sculptures by the original six Black abstract artists of Stony Brook's 1969 exhibition 5+1, all who were men, alongside six women artists of color including Distinguished Professor Howardena Pindell. Photographs and archival materials from campus in the late 1960s bring this era of racial politics and student activism to life.

STONY BROOK OPERA

2022–2023 CONCERT SCHEDULE

The Stony Brook Opera features graduate students in voice, many of whom have already established professional singing careers. The three-year repertoire cycle includes one Baroque opera, one contemporary opera and a standard work, all staged or semi-staged.

Tickets: $20 adults/$10 (students and seniors with ID) unless otherwise noted.
All concerts are in the Staller Center for the Arts Recital Hall unless specified.

Friday, November 18, 2022, 8 pm Sunday, November 20, 2022, 3 pm

Chamber Opera

Join us for two one-act chamber works, Sāvitri by Gustav Holst and Signor Deluso by Thomas Pasatieri, fully staged and accompanied by members of the Stony Brook Symphony Orchestra. In the dramatic work by Holst, we wonder: Can Death be defeated? Following Sāvitri, enjoy Pasatieri's romping farce of mistaken ideas and assumptions.

Sunday, February 26, 2023, 3 pm

Opera Scenes

A gala program of scenes from beloved and traditional operas with projected titles in English, semi-staged with piano accompaniment. Conducted by Daniel Beckwith and directed by Brenda Harris.

PRESENTS

SONS OF SERENDIP

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 11TH, 2022

Program to be announced from the stage.

PLEASE TURN OFF ALL CELL PHONES AND MUTE ALL SOUNDS DURING THE PERFORMANCE.

SONS OF SERENDIP

ABOUT

SONS OF SERENDIP is a musical group of four friends, who through a series of serendipitous events, came together in graduate school at Boston University. Micah Christian, a former teacher from Randolph, Massachusetts, is the lead vocalist of the group; Cordaro Rodriguez, a former attorney from Charlotte, North Carolina, is the pianist and guitarist; Kendall Ramseur, a former cello instructor from Charlotte, NC, is the cellist and vocalist; and Mason Morton, who is a former teacher from Atlanta, GA, is the harpist for the quartet. They have each been playing their instruments since childhood, but in 2014, they came together to begin what they know will be a long beautiful journey of creating music that touches people's hearts. They hope that their music will resonate deeply with listeners and that, in some way, it will make their lives a little better – even if just for a moment.

MICAH CHRISTIAN, a native of Randolph, Massachusetts, became interested in music at an early age. However, it wasn't until his senior year of high school, when he earned a solo in the Massachusetts Southeastern District Senior Choir, that he realized his potential as a musician. As a freshman at Stonehill College, he decided to follow his passion for music. For the next five years, he spent his summers performing with the Cape Cod-based a cappella group, Hyannis Sound, and his love for music deepened. Alongside Micah's passion for music is his desire to help build a better world. He has volunteered for a year in Honduras, and a month in Calcutta, India with Mother Teresa's Missionaries of Charity. Also, in 2013, after graduating from Boston University with a Master of Divinity, he and his wife volunteered in a rural community in northern Peru for another year. As a member of Sons of Serendip, Micah hopes to inspire others to use their gifts to spread love and build a better world.

KENDALL RAMSEUR is a singer-songwriter, composer, and cellist from Charlotte, North Carolina. Kendall's relationship with music began at age seven when his father purchased an upright piano for the family. While excelling in his piano studies, Kendall found his instrument of choice at age 10, "My orchestra teacher laid all the instruments on the floor in the classroom and told each student to stand by the instrument of their choice... the cello really sparked something in me". Kendall chose the cello that day, and one of the ways he would express himself chose him. He then went on to receive his Bachelors and Masters Degrees from the University of North Carolina School of the Arts and Boston University, in Music Performance with a concentration in cello. As a member of Sons of Serendip, his hope is that this quartet will inspire others through their music, creating an experience one will never forget.

MASON MORTON was born in Atlanta, Georgia. He lived in a house full of love and encouragement with his mom, an aunt, and his grandparents. He always admired his grandparents, and he says he learned his drive, determination, and taste in music from them. His love of music was instilled early on, and quickly became a passion for him. Mason began to see his own potential with the help of his harp mentors: principal harpist of the Atlanta Ballet, Nella Rigell, and former principal harpist of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, Ann Hobson Pilot. It was their combined confidence in Mason that gave him the courage to believe in himself.

After completing his graduate studies at Boston University, he is thrilled his musical journey has led him to Sons of Serendip. It is here he has gained the brotherhood he has longed for. As a member of Sons of Serendip, he hopes that his journey will help to inspire others to follow their dreams.

CORDARO RODRIGUEZ was born in Charlotte, North Carolina. He began teaching himself piano at the age of 10 and became well-versed in several other instruments as well as in music production. He has produced music for several well-known international artists such as Verbal, Kylie Minogue, CREAM, and Def Tech. After graduating from Princeton University in 2008 with a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology, he spent a year volunteering as an English teacher in Ecuador. He then attended Boston University School of Law where he received his Juris Doctor degree in 2012. At Boston University he serendipitously reconnected with his childhood friend, Kendall Ramseur, and met his future bandmates -- Mason Morton and Micah Christian. As a member of Sons of Serendip, Cordaro is very grateful to have the opportunity to pursue his love for music.

All we do is all for you.

We develop highly individualized, leading-edge cancer treatments, so Sarah can follow her passions.

Every pioneering innovation. Every preventive screening. Every specialized care team.

Every welcoming smile. Every genetic counseling session.

Every treatment option. Every clinical trial. Every personal connection.

Every commitment. Every reason for hope. Every new beginning.

At Stony Brook Cancer Center, all we do is all for you.

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a patterned shawl over a light-colored sweater, is smiling and looking up at a baby. The baby is being held by someone off-camera and is wearing a white shirt and a brown vest. The background is a blurred hospital room with medical equipment and a window.

All we do is all for you.

No matter what your baby needs,
we're ready.

Every outstretched hand. Every fragile start.
Every research paper. Every breakthrough therapy.
Every state-of-the art facility. Every loving heart.
At Stony Brook Children's Hospital, all we do is all for you.

Get Active Again!

Stony Brook Orthopaedic Associates Joint Replacement Center

Don't let pain in your hip or knee keep you from your daily activities.

As Suffolk County's largest orthopaedic practice, we specialize in nonsurgical and surgical options, and the most complex treatments.

Leaders in joint replacement and revision surgery, our physicians, James Nicholson, MD, Fazel Khan, MD, and Seth Korbin, MD, excel in helping patients relieve their pain in the most conservative approach possible.

Detachment: MFA Thesis Exhibition 2022 at the Paul W. Zuccaire Gallery

PAUL W. ZUCCAIRE GALLERY

is supported by the generosity of the Paul W. Zuccaire Foundation.

The mission of the Paul W. Zuccaire Foundation is to perpetuate the memory and the spirit of Paul W. Zuccaire by the encouragement, promotion and support of the arts, education, health, humanitarian and other related activities through grants to not-for-profit institutions and organizations.

The Foundation was established in 1999 by Estelle Zuccaire in loving memory of her husband.
