FALL 2022 EXHIBITION SCHEDULE

Through October 29, 2022

Connecting the Drops: The Power of Water

Seven contemporary artists present painting, drawing, sculpture, beadwork, video and a computer game focused on environmental justice and the vital importance of water.

November 10, 2022 - February 23, 2023

Revisiting 5+1

Featuring paintings and sculptures by the original six Black abstract artists of Stony Brook's 1969 exhibition 5+1, all who were men, alongside six women artists of color including Distinguished Professor Howardena Pindell. Photographs and archival materials from campus in the late 1960s bring this era of racial politics and student activism to life.

STONY BROOK OPERA

2022–2023 CONCERT SCHEDULE

The Stony Brook Opera features graduate students in voice, many of whom have already established professional singing careers. The three-year repertoire cycle includes one Baroque opera, one contemporary opera and a standard work, all staged or semi-staged.

Tickets: $20 adults/$10 (students and seniors with ID) unless otherwise noted.
All concerts are in the Staller Center for the Arts Recital Hall unless specified.

Friday, November 18, 2022, 8 pm Sunday, November 20, 2022, 3 pm

Chamber Opera

Join us for two one-act chamber works, Sāvitri by Gustav Holst and Signor Deluso by Thomas Pasatieri, fully staged and accompanied by members of the Stony Brook Symphony Orchestra. In the dramatic work by Holst, we wonder: Can Death be defeated? Following Sāvitri, enjoy Pasatieri's romping farce of mistaken ideas and assumptions.

Sunday, February 26, 2023, 3 pm

Opera Scenes

A gala program of scenes from beloved and traditional operas with projected titles in English, semi-staged with piano accompaniment. Conducted by Daniel Beckwith and directed by Brenda Harris.

Saturday, April 29, 2023, 8 pm Sunday April 30, 2023, 3 pm

La Tragédie de Carmen

Staller Center Main Stage

Tickets: $20/$15

See the tragic tale of Carmen in the version made famous by Sir Peter Brook. Music by George Bizet; fully staged and accompanied by members of the Stony Brook Symphony Orchestra. Conducted by Daniel Beckwith and directed by Brenda Harris.

THE PEKING ACROBATS

THE PEKING ACROBATS® FEATURING THE SHANGHAI CIRCUS

ABOUT

For the last thirty two years, The Peking Acrobats have redefined audience perceptions of Chinese acrobatics. They perform daring maneuvers atop a precarious pagoda of chairs and display their technical prowess at such arts as trick-cycling, precision tumbling, juggling, somersaulting, and gymnastics. They push the limits of human ability, defying gravity with amazing displays of contortion, flexibility, and control.

The Peking Acrobats are often accompanied by live musicians who skillfully play traditional Chinese instruments; the time-honored Chinese music coalesces with high-tech special effects and awe-inspiring acrobatic feats, creating an exuberant entertainment event with the festive pageantry of a Chinese Carnival.

Since their founding in 1986, The Peking Acrobats have been featured on numerous television shows and celebrity-studded TV specials. These include Nickelodeon's Unfabulous, Ellen's Really Big Show (hosted by Ellen DeGeneres), The Wayne Brady Show, That's Incredible, ABC's Wide World of Sports, and NBC's Ring In The New Year Holiday Special. They have also appeared on HDNet TV's In Focusseries, and have appeared regularly in 3D on NBC/Comcast's new 3D Channel.

The Peking Acrobats set the world record for the Human Chair Stack on FOX Network's Guinness Book Primetime television show in 1999: they balanced six people precariously atop six chairs twenty one feet up in the air without safety lines, astounding audiences with their bravery and dexterity.

They have also made their way onto the silver screen – company members were featured in Steven Soderbergh's hit film Ocean's Eleven playing alongside Julia Roberts, Brad Pitt and George Clooney. PEKING ACROBATS' alumnus Shaobo Qin also appeared in that film's two sequels, Ocean's Twelve and Ocean's Thirteen.

THE PEKING ACROBATS

The Peking Acrobats achieved another milestone in the fall of 2003, when they made their orchestral debut at the Hollywood Bowl in Los Angeles, CA. They performed as part of the Hollywood Bowl's Fireworks Season Finale, where the company blended their unique brand of acrobatics with the majestic sound of the 100-piece Hollywood Bowl Orchestra, conducted by John Mauceri. Since their Hollywood Bowl debut, THE PEKING ACROBATS have performed with many of the most prestigious Symphony Orchestras in North America today. These include the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra; the Ravinia Festival Orchestra, featuring members of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra; the San Diego Symphony Orchestra; the Cincinnati Pops Orchestra; the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra; and the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra. The group return often to the Hollywood Bowl, where they perform with the Hollywood Bowl Orchestra as Special Guest Artists.

Over their thirty-one year career, The Peking Acrobats have achieved international acclaim, dazzling audiences around the world. In February of 2005, they premiered in Italy on a five-week, twelve-city tour. Their opening in Milan became a spectacular media event that was covered nationally by the Italian press. In city after city, The Peking Acrobats took the stage before sold-out crowds, and the reviews were filled with accolades attesting to their superb performances. Since their Italian debut, the troupe has performed in seven European countries on their six European Tours between 2005 and today.

The Peking Acrobats are part of a time-honored Chinese tradition, rooted in centuries of Chinese history and folk art. Tradition demands that each generation of acrobats add its own improvements and embellishments; because of this, high honor is conferred upon those skilled enough to become acrobats. They seek to uphold this rich and ancient folk art tradition, bringing it to new technical heights while integrating twenty-first century technology.

In the words of Clive Davis of the New York Post, "The Peking Acrobats [are] pushing the envelope of human possibility," combining agility and grace in remarkable feats of "pure artistry."

Alan Alda Center for Communicating Science®

AT STONY BROOK UNIVERSITY

CONNECT WITH YOUR AUDIENCE. Share your work. Tell your story.

The Alan Alda Center for Communicating Science trains scientists and healthcare professionals to talk about their work in clear and vivid language with anyone — a neighbor, media representative, government official or colleague from another discipline — with the goal of strengthening human connection.

A woman with long blonde hair, wearing a patterned shawl over a light-colored sweater, is smiling and looking up at a baby. The baby is being held by someone off-camera and is wearing a white shirt and a brown vest. The background is a blurred hospital room with medical equipment and a red blanket.

All we do is all for you.

No matter what your baby needs,
we're ready.

Every outstretched hand. Every fragile start.
Every research paper. Every breakthrough therapy.
Every state-of-the art facility. Every loving heart.
At Stony Brook Children's Hospital, all we do is all for you.

Detachment: MFA Thesis Exhibition 2022 at the Paul W. Zuccaire Gallery

PAUL W. ZUCCAIRE GALLERY is supported by the generosity of the Paul W. Zuccaire Foundation.

The mission of the Paul W. Zuccaire Foundation is to perpetuate the memory and the spirit of Paul W. Zuccaire by the encouragement, promotion and support of the arts, education, health, humanitarian and other related activities through grants to not-for-profit institutions and organizations.

The Foundation was established in 1999 by Estelle Zuccaire in loving memory of her husband.
