As we continue to navigate these uncharted times, we look to our Friends and are extremely grateful for the significant impact you have made on the arts. We are thankful that you choose to invest in the Staller Center and recognize the value that we bring to the community.

We realize this may be a difficult time for many people, as it has been for the Staller Center; but would like to ask that if you are able to give to the Friends of Staller to please consider sharing your support. With your help, we intend on coming back strong to bring you music, dance, theater, film and everything in between.

If you have already given to the Friends for the coming season, thank you so very much. If you are experiencing hardship this year please know that we will still carry all donor names through this season as a sign of our respect and appreciation.

Friends of Staller at the $250 level and above, receive as a special thank you, the opportunity to participate in the early release of tickets for live shows.

Ways to give:

We can help to create a customized donation for general use or a specific area of interest. There are many different ways to share your support such as:

- Corporate Partnership
- Payroll deduction
- Annuity gift
- Matching gift
- Stock gift
- Pledge gift over multiple years
- Tribute Gift (In Memory or In Honor of someone)
